TRAVEL REQUEST INFORMATION

Dear Judge Munson:

On November 7, 1997, Jessica Leon Guerrero was sentenced to 60 months imprisonment followed by ten years supervised release with conditions to include that she not commit another federal, state, and local crime; not possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon; not possess, use, distribute or administer any controlled substances; submit to one urinalysis test within 15 days of release, and to two additional urinalysis tests thereafter not to exceed 60 days; participate in a treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Office for substance abuse which may include but not limited to random urinalysis. On February 23, 2006, supervised release conditions were modified to include that Ms. Leon Guerrero refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and that she shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the probation officer.

On March 2, 2006, Ms. Leon Guerrero submitted a request to travel to the island of Guam to visit with her mother, Maryann Bulgrin. According to Ms. Leon Guerrero, her mother recently relocated to Guam after several years in Hawaii where she lived with her husband, Lon Bulgrin. She expressed a desire to bring her 18 month old son to Guam to spend time with her mother and step-father. She is requesting to travel from April 2, 2006 to April 10, 2006, when she will return to Saipan, Northern Mariana Islands. Ms. Maryann Bulgrin has verified her residing on Guam.
